QUESTIONS

Entrepreneurship and innovation involve finding ways to add value to the lives of others. In service we engage our heads, hearts and hands in adding value to the lives of others. Please respond to the following, giving details, examples and evidence (can be images, digital, web links, or others) where appropriate.

Heads: What are your favourite enterprising ideas? This might include your own ideas, or the ideas of others who have inspired you.

QUESTIONS CONTINUED

Hearts: What is your heartfelt wish for the communities you belong to? Rather than a sense of entitlement, All Saints' College is committed to fostering within our students a strong sense of responsibility to their various communities. Do / how do your ideas add value to the community?

Hands: How have you put your ideas into action – what have you made, created and achieved?
